

Marguerite Moorhead Weds Joseph Aflague

Marguerite D. Moorhead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moorhead, was given in marriage by her parents to Sgt. Joseph David Aflague on Saturday, Aug. 18 at 4 p.m. in the Graystone United Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Byron Crozier officiated at the double ring ceremony. Music was provided by the church organist, Dominic Intili.

Sgt. Aflague is the son of Mrs. Marie Aflague of Agana, Guam. The couple met in Germany where the bride was a student at Lessing College in Marburg-on-Lahn and the groom was serving with the U.S. Army 101st Airborne Division in the Mainz-Weisbaden area.

Mrs. David W. Allen was her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. William McGinnis, her sister; and Misses Karen Willis and Susan Smith.

Heather Elizabeth Allen, niece of the bride was the flower girl.

Serving as the best man was the bride's brother, Ralph Moorhead. Ushers were David W. Allen, William McGinnis, John Moorhead and junior usher, Thomas Moorhead.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza and lace, featuring an empire waist and Juliet sleeves. The veil of Spanish lace was bought in Madrid and has been worn by both of the bride's sisters.

A reception was held at the Ramada Inn with music by the Ken Black Trio.

Out of town guests included the groom's mother, two of his sisters, Dr. Faye Munoz and Sister Joel Marie.

After a wedding trip across the United States, Sgt. and Mrs. Aflague will be home at home after Sept. 17 at 2812 Orchard St., Tillicum, Washington.
