Prominent Young Man of Indiana and Miss E. Jane Butler of Coraopolis Wed at Ebensburg Wednesday.

NUPTIAL NOTES

A surprise marriage of much interest to the friends of the contracting couple occurred at Ebensburg on Wednesday, when Miss E. Jane Butler, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. John T. Butler of Coraopolis, became the bride of Albert Donald Moorhead, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Moorhead of South Seventh street, Indiana. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. F. Heany pastor of the Ebensburg Presbyterian Church, at his residence in the Mountain City. Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead arrived in Indiana last evening and will spend a few days in the former's home, later visiting with the bride's parents in Coraopolis.

Mr. Moorhead and Miss Butler became acquainted at the Indiana State Normal School where both were students last term. The bride was well known among the student body and was a popular member of the younger social set in Coraopolis.

Mr. Moorhead is one of the prominent young men of Indiana. He is a member of the Outing Club and of the Omega Chi Fraternity of the Indiana State Normal School. He is also a member of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, taking membership while he was a student at Lehigh University.

Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead are the recipients of warm congratulations from their friends.
